Dear Sir,

Publication of Jersey legislation

I refer to your proposal to publish certain Jersey legislation relating to Merchant Shipping on a subscription website and in CD-ROM format.

All Jersey legislation is copyright of the States of Jersey and as Greffier of the States I am responsible for administering that copyright. I am nevertheless content to grant you permission to copy and issue to subscribers/purchasers Jersey legislation as part of your services subject to the following conditions –

1. The permission is not exclusive, and in addition to the official publications issued by this Department I reserve the right to publish the material and to permit other publishers to do so.
2. Any reproduction of the text must be accurate and up-to-date incorporating amendments up to a given and clearly indicated date. You must take full responsibility for sourcing and updating the legislation.
- 3.1. In the case of the subscription website any new amending or repealing legislation notified to you must be incorporated in the published text within 21 days of receipt by you.
- 3.2. In the case of a reissue of the CD-ROM edition the text must be brought up-to-date to the base date of the reissue.

4. The publication must bear the following statement –

“Reproduced by permission of the Greffier of the States of Jersey.”

5. The publication must also contain the following disclaimer –

“This version of Jersey legislation is published for information purposes only and is not the official or authorised version.”

Regs4ships take full responsibility for any inaccuracy as a result of the transposition copying or consolidation of this Jersey maritime legislation. The official version of Jersey legislation is obtainable from the States Greffe, Morier House, St. Helier, Jersey JE1 1DD"

6. Full access in the case of the website and one copy of the CD-ROM and all updates must be provided free of charge to Piers Baker, Maritime Compliance Manager, Regulatory Services, Liberation Place, St Helier JE1 1BB
7. This permission may not be assigned to another person without the consent of the Greffier of the States of Jersey.
8. The permission may be withdrawn after six months' notice or without notice in the event of any breach of the above conditions.

I trust this permission is sufficient for your purposes and if you have any queries please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours faithfully,

Michael N. de la Haye
Greffier of the States.
